

Handout #1

Best Practices of Volunteer Management Work Priorities Activity

Colleen Pulvermacher, Associate Professor

Jennifer Swensen, Assistant Professor

University of Wisconsin Extension 4-H Youth Development Educators

Power	Evaluating Programs	Pleasing My Boss	Getting Through the Day
Mentoring	Earning Money	Promotion/Tenure	Work/Life Balance
Teaching	Collaborating	Using Technology	Advocacy
Researching	Stream Lining Processes	Maintaining Status Quo	Staying With In The Budget
Supervising	Being Well Liked	Developing Programs	Advising
Organizing	Using Research	Volunteer Development	Communication
Working 8-4	Fixing Problems

*The potential priorities listed were compiled from a state wide questionnaire that went to all UW-Extension 4-H Youth Development colleagues.

Developed by Colleen Pulvermacher and Jennifer Swensen, UW-Extension 4-H Youth Development Educators, 2013.